

First Mass Celebrated in new Building for St. Thomas More Parish!

The parish of St. Thomas More Catholic Church celebrated the first mass services held in their newly constructed church on Saturday March 31 and Sunday April 1.

Reverend Peter M. McGuine and Deacon Thomas Goeltz approach the altar as the first mass celebration in the newly constructed church begins.

It was a full house at the first mass held in the new church facility.

The long awaited day finally arrived for occupancy of the 22,500 sq. ft. facility. The newly completed building is the first phase of completion for an eventual 68,700 sq. ft. parish complex.

The newly constructed facility is still undergoing some finishing touches.

Mass celebrations are held as follows:

Saturday: 5:00 p.m.
Sunday: 8:30 a.m. & 10:30 a.m.
Tues. - Fri. 8:15 a.m.

The newly constructed 22,500 sq. ft. parish center located at 1450 South Melrose Dr. in Oceanside.

Alter boy Daniel Day leads the procession as he is followed by sister and alter girl Jennifer Day, Rev. Peter McGuine and Deacon Thomas Goeltz as the first Mass celebration in the new church comes to a conclusion.
