

NEW UNDERWEAR DRIVE FOR ASYLUM SEEKERS

Some of the asylum seeking families who have been vetted by ICE, have documents, a court date,, and a sponsor are staying at a shelter supported by Bishop McElroy and the Diocese of San Diego, Jewish Family Services, Catholic Charities, ACLU, SDOP and individuals. The families are there for a short period of time until they are able to connect with their sponsor.

Parishes in North County have been invited to collect some of the items most needed by these families. Participating Parishes are donating:

St. Thomas More—underwear
St. Mary, Star of the Sea—clothes
St. Patrick—backpacks
St. Leo Mission/St. James—socks and shoelaces

WHAT WE NEED YOU TO DO
Bring the following donations to the collection table on the plaza:

Women's sports bras of all sizes

WHEN

THANK YOU FOR YOUR HELP!

Whatever you did for the least of these, you did for me.
Matthew 25:40
