Old Business

Non-glare windows for the Upper Level – This item has been dropped after a review of its cost turned out to be prohibitive in our current, temporary worship space.

New Church outline flags repair – Chris Smith (Development) has taken this on. The Environment and Art Committee has given her templates and designs to facilitate the repairs.

Anointing Mass – No action reported at this time.

New Business and Planning

Holy Week/Easter Season/Pentecost – Extended discussions on the Environment and Art Committee's preparations ensued. They plan to follow last year's plan. There was a discussion of adding red banners to our liturgical palette (Palm Sunday and Good Friday), but we will stay with the purple for now. Additional helpers for Joe Buhlert were suggested.

Bishop Brom will be celebrating Mass and presiding at the liturgy of Confirmation at the 10:30am liturgy on Pentecost, Sunday, May 11, 2008.

Liturgical Ministers – Douglas Lynn

We will be hosting the Diocese's Formation Day for new Eucharistic Ministers on Saturday, March 8, 2008. Eucharistic Ministers from our Parish will be helping and providing hospitality.

A new version of our scheduling program has helped to allow families to be kept together with members of their family who sing in choirs. We previously did this type of coordination by hand.

There are seven youth from our high school ministry who are attending the Formation Day for new Eucharistic Ministers. They will be added to the ministry in June after those who have not yet been confirmed do so in May. They will be able to serve on weekends and at Monday Night Mass.

Liturgical Music – Douglas Lynn

Spring Sing on April 6, 2008 will include at least one new choir, which comes from the Methodist Church in Escondido.

The Youth Handbell Choir has elected to continue past its "trial" period and into May. They will be presenting music at a 10:30am Mass in May. They plan to continue in the fall.

Round Table

Elaine Cassidy reported that purificators and towels have been finding their way into the soiled vestment bin.

Next Meeting/Assignment of Prayer

The next meeting is scheduled for May 7, 2008. Lorraine Doering will lead the opening prayer.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:15 p.m.
