PASTOR'S COLUMN

"Our Journey Into The Future...Together"

Our Capital Campaign is now three months old and we have achieved great success. Over 50% of our Parish Households have responded and over 46% have made pledges. We have raised $3.57 million and with money "on hand" at the Diocese before the Campaign began, we now stand at $4.77 million.

We have come a long way in a short time. We have already achieved results of which many people were, at the beginning, very skeptical.

We chose not to retain an outside fund-raising company. The Campaign is being run "in house" which, thanks to a very talented and dedicated staff, is saving the Parish tens of thousands of dollars.

"Our Journey Into The Future...Together" is extremely informative and positive as it challenges all of us to help in the buildout of our Parish Campus with the Church/Sanctuary being the next building to be built.

On the last weekend of January, the Parish Leadership gave a Parish Update on the Campaign before all Masses. As Randy Reznicek, the Development Council Chairperson said then, "We will build our Church. The matter at hand is whether it will be built sooner, or if it will be built later. With the cooperation of all Parishioners, it will be sooner rather than later."

The Parish Leadership and I have made a commitment that we will not approach the Diocese to begin discussions and negotiations to procure a Diocesan Loan until all Parish Households have responded to the Campaign.

We realize that everyone's circumstances are different. We are seeking equal sacrifice, not equal gift. Also in a few situations, it may be that one cannot make a pledge at this time, but will simply continue to support the operating budget of the Parish.

Whatever the circumstances, I believe it is extremely important that every household respond to the Campaign. Knowing that the entire Parish is, in some way, a part of this Capital Campaign, will greatly provide the necessary confidence and support to Parish Leadership as we approach Diocesan Leadership.

APOSTLESHIP OF PRAYER

General Intentions and Mission Intentions recommended to the Prayers of the Faithful by Pope John Paul II for the month of February:

General Intention: FOR THE SICK, ESPECIALLY THOSE WHO ARE POOR: That they may receive care and treatment worthy of their human dignity.

Mission Intention: FOR MISSIONARIES: That they grow in fervent love, indispensable for proclaiming the Gospel with conviction.

Only then, with a great sense of confidence and honesty, can I say to Bishop Brom, "This is the present commitment ability of the Church of St. Thomas More. This is what we are financially able to do at this time. With this sacrificial commitment, how will the Diocese be able to assist us?"

A key word in the name of our Capital Campaign is the word "together." Our Church/Sanctuary and other buildings will be used, not by some of us, but by all of us, all 1,097 Households. We all have a responsibility to support this Campaign in whatever way we are able. We must be united, and we must move into the future together.

If you have not yet responded to the Campaign, please do so in this month of February. Make a commitment to respond to this Campaign. Let us know what kind of financial assistance you will be able to provide. All pledges/gifts of any size will be welcomed. All responses, one way or another (in person, in writing, email or telephone), will be welcomed. Most important is the willingness to respond, to help create a sense in our Parish that is visible to Bishop Brom that we are together, united, and willing to sacrifice on behalf of our Faith Family.

We will build a Church sooner or later. With everyone taking seriously their responsibilities to this Faith Community, it will be sooner than later.

For all Parish Households who have already responded and have set the example for others, thank you! Know that your sacrifice is very much appreciated.

You are a grateful people. You are a generous people. You are a faith-filled people. I know that you will respond in the manner necessary to help us, as a Parish, build the necessary buildings so that we may faithfully continue the mission and ministry of Jesus.

Fr. Mike

WOMEN'S GUILD MEETING

The Women's Guild monthly meeting will be held on Monday, February 14, at 11:00am on the upper level of the Parish Center. Lunch will be provided for $6.00. We will also be having a Chinese Auction. This is the time to get rid of new or gently used items that you no longer use or want. Our beautiful quilt will be raffled off also.

Please RSVP to Ann Ybarrondo at 597-1361 or Gerri Wilmott at 758-9949.

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL

This Diocesan Collection provides funding to programs vital for our diocesan mission:

- ...to teach through instruction in the faith
- ...to sanctify through priestly ministries
- ...to serve through Catholic Charities

This year our Parish Assessment is $23,000. The Diocesan goal is $2.5 million. All money raised, over our assessment, is returned to the Parish. The money that is over and above our assessment will fund a Parish Reserve Account, which is essential now as our "new" building, the Parish Center, begins to age and more and more maintenance issues arise.

Information has been mailed to all registered households. If you are a tithing family, be mindful that your tithing "covers" your gift to the Annual Catholic Appeal. For all others, your envelope can be returned any time during the months of February and March. We hope to complete this collection by Easter Sunday, March 27. Your generosity will be much appreciated!

Teen Faith Formation

A new set of Mini-Courses will be held Feb. 27, March 6 and March 13 from 6:30-8:30 PM. Call or email Kathleen Bell to sign up NOW!

ALL TEENS are welcome in the classes that are still open. 6 hours of your time will allow you to explore:

- Death, Grief, and Christian Hope
Get in touch with your own experiences of grief, death and dying; explore the question: "What is death?"; how does Jesus connect to our experience.
Sharon Hamill, facilitator
- Taking Charge: Managing Life's Struggles
Understand that difficulties are a part of the human situation. Recognize sources for growth, support, and assistance within yourself and around you.
George Navadel, facilitator
- Deciding as a Christian
Identify and explore moral situations in your life and understand how to respond in faith.
Stacie Waters, facilitator

Bible Video Library (In memory of Jenny)

Here's an opportunity for all parishioners to help in the religious education of our children, and also honor the memory of Jenny Treat, who was our youngest catechist.

- 14 Videos have been "adopted" so far;
- 17 Videos are looking for "adoption";
- $30 will "ransom" one video
- Smaller or larger donations are welcome
- Checks would be payable to St. Thomas More.

Thanks for your continuing support!

HISTORIANS NEED YOUR HELP!

If you have any current pictures of 2005 events, such as baptisms, potlucks, confirmations, first communions, weddings, committee meetings, retreats, receptions, etc., please label them with dates, event, and names of those in the pictures and put them in the Historian mailbox #62 only. We are working hard at getting current in our parish photo albums and look forward to working with as many pictures as possible in 2005. Thank you for your help!!!

GOLF IS ALIVE IN 2005!

Please take a minute and stop by the Golf Tournament Committee's table in the Plaza after weekend Masses. Learn about how you can participate in this year's event through Sponsorship, Awards or as a Player or Volunteer. This year's date is April 4th at Shadowridge C.C. There will be great food, prizes, raffles and a silent auction filled with fantastic items for bid. Everyone is welcome at the dinner and auction.

For information, contact
John Innocenti at 599-7174.

STEWARDSHIP: LIVING OUR FAITH IN THANKSGIVING

We cannot live only for ourselves.
A thousand fibers connect us with our fellow men;
And among those fibers, as sympathetic threads,
Our actions run as courses, and they come back to us as effects.

—H. Melville

CALLED INTO COMMUNITY

The body does not consist of one member but of many.

If the foot would say, 'Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body', that would not make it any less a part of the body.

If the ear would say, 'Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body', that would not make it any less a part of the body . . .

But as it is, God arranged the members of the body, each one of them, as He chose.

If all were a single member where would the body be?

As it is, there are many members, yet one body.

The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I don't need you', nor again the head to the feet, 'I don't need you'.

On the contrary, the members of the body that seem to be the weaker are indispensable, and those members of the body that we consider less honorable we clothe with greatest honor. . .

God has so arranged the body, giving the greater honor to the inferior member, that there may be no dissension within the body, but the members may have the same care for one another.

If one member suffers, all suffer together with it; if one member is honored, all rejoice together with it. Now, you are the body of Christ and individually members of it.
(1 Cor. 12:14-26)

TEMPTATION

“Today, Jesus is tempted. We are often tempted not to live up to our highest potential as children of God. Like Jesus, our temptations may not be so much to do evil as to choose some lesser good.

“Often we do this with our giving. We choose to be less giving than we know we could be, less generous than we think we should be. Subtly, the devil tempts us to think that our gift is sufficient.

“Lent is a time for reminding us that the Lords calls us to the highest form of discipleship and the most challenging aspects of giving. Lent calls us to be more generous and to take hold of life to its fullest.”
—Rev. Robert Ihloff

Let us give thanks for each member of the Body, particularly in our own parish community, for friend and stranger, for the ones on the fringes and for those near the center. Let us make this journey together, with Faith, Hope and Love!

Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed citizens can change the world. Indeed, it's the only thing that ever has. —M. Mead

God's Blessings on us all as we continue to serve Him in word and deed!

LIFE LINE SCREENING

Life Line Screening tests will be held here at St. Thomas More Church on Friday, Feb. 25. We have offered our church space as a community service. The Church will not derive any financial benefit from this event. It is being provided as a service to our community. For those parishioners and others from the community at large who choose to use this opportunity to schedule one or more of these tests, our location will be a convenient place for them to come.

Life Line Screening’s mission is to make people aware of an undetected health problem and encourage them to seek follow up care with their physician. If you would like to schedule an appointment for February 25, please call 1-800-324-1851, or if you would like more information about their services, visit their website at www.lifelinescreening.com.

POST-ABORTION HEALING RETREATS

FAITH FORMATION FOR ADULTS UPDATE

There are some really great programs coming up that you will certainly find interesting and worth your while:

On Tuesday, February 15, Patt Goeltz will start teaching the Diocesan Institute Class “Catholic Approach to the Bible” from 6:30-9:00pm for four consecutive Tuesdays here at St. Thomas More. You can either audit the course or take it for credit. See the notice elsewhere in the Bulletin or the sign and registration forms near the Bulletin Board on the lower level. It’s not too late, but you need to act quickly.

On Wednesday, February 23, there will be a wonderful program presented by the Spirited Seniors at 1:00pm on the upper level. You don’t need a reservation and the speaker will be Mary Fingel Erickson who will talk about “Reconversion to the Roman Catholic Faith.” See the notice elsewhere in the Bulletin. You won’t want to miss this one.

And for sure, be certain to reserve Tuesday, March 15, when Fr. Mike and Rabbi Libman will be offering a stimulating presentation “The Passion of the Christ – Perspectives of a Rabbi and a Priest,” from 7:00-9:00pm. If you didn’t see the movie, be sure to see the DVD or video beforehand.

For more information, call George Jones, 806-8139.

MEETING

Wednesday, February 23, 2005, 1 p.m.
St. Thomas More, Upper Level

Our speaker will be
 Mary Fingel Erickson, Superior Court Justice.
 Her topic will be:
"Reconversion to the Roman Catholic Faith"

A question and answer period will follow.

Judge Mary Fingel Erickson is a judge of the Superior Court for Orange County, appointed by Gov. Pete Wilson in 1997. She is a member of Holy Family Cathedral Parish in Orange and serves as a lector.

No reservations are required.

HOLY THURSDAY DINNER TRADITION

It is a tradition in our parish on Holy Thursday to have dinners in parishioners' homes after the liturgy. Loaves of bread and bottles of wine are blessed after Mass for consumption at these dinners. We need "Hosts" who provide the setup in their home, and "Guests" who will be assigned to those homes to bring a dish to share. Host families determine the number of Guests they can accommodate and if their home is suitable for children. This is a random assignment of Guests to Hosts homes. This event is not for Host homes who have pre-planned dinner guests invited. This is meant as a way to meet new fellow parishioners as well as extend the blessings and meaning of this holy night. Sign ups to be either a Host House or Guest will take place after each Mass the weekends of 2/12-13, 2/19-20, 2/26-27, 3/5-6, & 3/12-13. The last day to sign up will be Sunday, March 13th.

If you would like more information, call:

Lisa Reaves at 945-3212 or Henny Jocelyn at 726-1177.

BEGINNING EXPERIENCE RETREAT

A Beginning Experience Retreat Weekend is slated for March 18-20, 2005, at Mission San Luis Rey in Oceanside. Widowed, divorced and separated persons ready to move beyond their grief are invited to attend. A specially trained team leads participants through a healing and growth experience. Team leaders include men and women who are separated, divorced and widowed. If you are ready to put your feelings of anger and despair behind you, desire a new beginning, and are ready to work to make that desire a reality, this weekend may be for you.

*"When those preparing for initiation, and our community
are seen together
as two dimensions of the initiation process, then we are emerging into the true model called for in our renewed church.
ALL of us must be actively involved in this time of initiation."*

Be a Prayer Partner

During this rich season of Lent, many members of our community are preparing to continue and/or complete the path of initiation in the Catholic Church. Walking with them is "the responsibility of all the baptized."

To encourage all our parishioners to take an active role, you are invited to be a Prayer Partner to one or more parishioners in the period of final preparation. Simply select as many names as you like after Mass today or from the bulletin board on the lower level. You will find their pictures are on the bulletin board as well.

Pray for the members of our community that you select. You can use the prayer on the back of the name card, or any form of prayer. This creates a spiritual bond between you and this child or adult. Through your prayer ask God to strengthen and support your partner through the final stage of preparation to receive the Sacrament.

Sacraments of Initiation will be celebrated at the Easter Vigil on March 26

First Communion will be celebrated on May 22, 28, 29

Confirmation will be celebrated on May 15

Being a Prayer Partner is a spiritual relationship, so we ask that no material gifts be given. Spiritual gifts are welcome....that might be a card or letter of support and congratulations. Some like to share their personal experience of celebrating the Sacrament for the first time or another special memory with their Prayer Partner in a written note. These spiritual gifts may be left any time between now and the above dates in the container on the bookshelf outside my office on the lower level, and I will see that they are delivered at the time of reception.

Thank you for being a mentoring member of St. Thomas More parish!

THANK YOU!

The High School Youth Group would like to thank all parishioners who donated soup for our second annual "Souper Bowl Drive." The grateful recipient was Catholic Charities Emergency Services of Vista. Thank you for your continued support!

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION

The St. Thomas More RCIA Team would like to introduce the catechumens and candidates being sent to the Rite of Election and Call to Continuing Conversion with the Bishop in San Diego this 13th day of February 2005.

The Rite of Election and Call to Continuing Conversion calls all the catechumens (the unbaptized), candidates (those who have received only baptism) and the faithful into a time of intense preparation, by prayer and spiritual recollection, for the celebration and/or renewal of baptism at the Easter Vigil.

This step moves these members into the period of Purification and Enlightenment. The “enlightenment” is the experience of a personal encounter with Christ the Savior during the community’s Lenten retreat in prayer. With the faithful and the already baptized candidates, the elect purify their minds and hearts as they each examine their conscience and do penance.

*You are invited to remove and retain this special bulletin insert for Lent.
Please pray for these people during this important time.*

Jordyn Moore

Mathew DePaolo

I am one of the catechists blessed with the opportunity of preparing these three children for full reception into our Catholic community. Mathew DePaolo, Devin Carpinelli and Jordyn Moore have been attending their religious education classes as well as Sunday morning RCIA sessions. You may have noticed the "taller" ones who are dismissed along with the younger children during Liturgy of the Word at the 8:30 Mass. These are our young catechumens who are seeking to receive the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist at the Easter vigil on March 26, 2005.

Please pray for Mathew, Devin and Jordyn during this time of Lent and their final preparation to becoming full members of our Catholic community.

Martha Black

To the parish family of St. Thomas More,

When I first met Martha Black just a little over a year ago, I thought she was a sweet, vivacious, and lovely young woman. Having been baptized Catholic as an infant, Martha desired to learn more about her religion. By the time I became her sponsor in the RCIA program, she had already spent some time in the inquiry group, and had made the decision to move forward to full initiation into the Church. I sensed at that time that she was searching for a spiritual connection to her God.

During the first few weeks of RCIA, Martha always listened intently to what others were saying, but she usually didn't offer her own thoughts and feelings. I think she was unsure of herself, and was afraid that she would say something wrong. I finally convinced her that there are no wrong answers when it comes to a person's own faith journey, and as the weeks went by, she began to open up and feel more comfortable sharing her thoughts and experiences with the group.

I am so blessed to know Martha, and as her sponsor this past year, it has been a joy to watch her grow in her faith and trust in the Lord's plan for her. She has found that spiritual connection that she was searching for, and is eagerly anticipating her full initiation into the Church at the Easter Vigil this coming March. I truly believe that Martha has been filled with the Spirit of God, and that she will be an active, loving, and giving member of our parish family.

*—In God's peace,
Diane Alesi*

I have been privileged to walk the journey of faith with Joe Duncan. I have learned from him many things. His faith in the Lord and his humility made my own faith stronger. As Joe's sponsor, I believe he is fully ready to be baptized and to join the Church.

*—Sincerely,
Vlad Bolshakov*

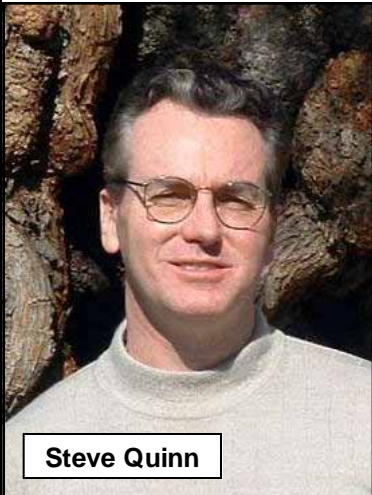

Joe Duncan

I would like to introduce Jennifer Guenther to St. Thomas More community. As Jennifer's sponsor I believe her to be ready to receive the Sacraments of Initiation. She has participated in the RCIA process with great sincerity and enthusiasm and is eager to become a full member of the Catholic Church. It has been an honor to be a part of Jennifer's journey.

—Agnes Bolshakov, Sponsor

My Dear Fellow Parishioners:

It is with great pride and thankfulness to God that I present Steve Quinn as a candidate for the Sacraments of Initiation. In every way I feel he is ready to take this step to full membership in our Catholic Community and into the Holy Catholic Church.

Steve Quinn

Steve has been a challenge to himself and to those of us involved with him on his path of faith formation. But persistence and courage and loyalty have been his response to the inspiration of the Holy Spirit in him and he has involved himself wholeheartedly in the RCIA process. His intellect and curiosity have asked of him considerable effort and prayers in moving forward in this quest and we can all be proud of him that he has not wavered from this effort.

I feel confident Steve will not only be a good Catholic but one we will all be proud of in the years to come. I expect great things from him, not only in his spiritual life but in his secular life as well. Our prayers go out for him and we ask that also he keep us in his prayers.

*Sincerely in Christ,
George P. Jones*

Jennifer Guenther

I would like to introduce DeAnne Gonzales. She has been a candidate with the RCIA program for the past several years. Through circumstances beyond control, her full initiation into the Church has been delayed; however, her faith and love in the Church has kept her in the front row every Sunday at Mass. She has realized that everything is in God's time, not hers, and because of the time she has been given, she has grown. She is especially thankful for the prayers and support she has received from our Parish community and looks forward to the day when she can give that support back as a fully initiated member of the Church. It is with great joy that I recommend DeAnne's readiness to receive the sacraments this Easter.

To the Community of St. Thomas More,
 I would like to present to you Valerie Sonntag as a well prepared candidate for full initiation into the Catholic Church. Valerie has been preparing for several years and has demonstrated a true commitment to the Catholic Faith. Over the years she has grown into a more faithful Christian. She is eager to become fully initiated and be able to become active in Church ministry. Valerie is very knowledgeable in her faith and is willing to share her beliefs. I have been honored to have been a part of Valerie's journey of faith. May the Holy Spirit continue to guide her through her lifelong journey and may God bless her always.

—Beverly Kowallek

It has been a deep joy to accompany D.G. Kilcher on her very personal journey of meeting and becoming acquainted with God. There is no doubt of the Holy Spirit working in her life and moving her heart.

D.G. has expressed the difference God has made in her life and how much she has learned through the R.C.I.A. process. She likes and appreciates the symbolism in the Church's art, rites and gestures because they are "such aids to worshipping God."

D.G. has warmly embraced the Catholic Church's teachings. She understands this to be a life-long journey and desires to be a member of the Body of the Church.

D.G. is a sensitive and caring person and is eager to "finally!" (I use her word) receive the Sacraments. We can all rejoice that D.G. will not longer be "on the outside looking in," but will have her desire met and will be assimilated into the Mystical Body of Christ. It is from there I expect her to continue to be a willing servant.

To the St. Thomas More community:

I have had the pleasure of meeting and getting to know Drew Moore over the last several months, and from the onset his desire to better understand the workings of the church and strengthen his belief in the Catholic faith have greatly impressed me. Throughout the RCIA process, he continually displayed this desire through his intelligent questions and insightful observations. Drew's thirst for the practical applications of our faith in the midst of day-to-day life will make him a great testament to everyone around him, and especially to those in his current situation.

I have also had the wonderful opportunity to witness the development of Drew's personal relationship with God, specifically relating to how it can affect others. I firmly believe that Drew Moore is ready to fully receive the Sacraments of Initiation, and I am confident that his constant devotion to his family will be mirrored in his faithful devotion to Jesus and the Church, for indeed, this is already happening. Drew is ready to conclude the transition from one faith journey to the next, and I am privileged to be a part of it.

Most sincerely,
 Devin Collins

Although I attended a Catholic pre-school in Washington State, later, when we arrived in California, we rarely participated in church activities. A year or so ago, my parents made the decision that we get involved in the church and that I would enter the RCIA Program. Now I enjoy every moment and I really look forward to coming here. I want to be a part of the Catholic community and experience the sacramental life of the church.

—AJ DePaolo

Jonathan Pelletier

I entered the RCIA process because I was never baptized at birth, and, deep down, I've always felt a strong importance for the Sacrament of Baptism. About halfway through the program, I wanted to quit because of all of the work involved. My parents urged me on. I rebelled for awhile, but eventually I grew to like and adopt RCIA for myself. A turning point on my journey occurred in January at a youth group meeting. This particular evening was dedicated to a former member who suddenly died. I didn't know her at all, but, I realized that night that this is what church is all about: A community coming together in pain and suffering and God being in the midst of all of this. It was then that I finally "got it".

—Jonathan Pelletier

Erin Briley

A couple of years ago, my friend Alicia brought me to the St. Thomas More High School Youth Group. I wasn't a Catholic, and almost immediately I wanted to convert. That's when I joined RCIA. My mom is not a practicing Catholic, but, she supports me in my choice to join our church. I want to become a Catholic because I admire the strong faith that Catholics have and I would like to be like that.

—Erin Briley

Max Carpinelli

My parents were born and raised Catholic; however, my siblings and I were not baptized at birth. So, we made the choice to join the church. I want to follow the path that my parents have chosen for me. Also, in observing other faiths, I have come to respect and value the earthiness of Catholicism.

—Max Carpinelli

Eric Waggoner

I entered RCIA because I felt like I needed religion and faith in my life. I talked to our former pastor, Fr. Peter, and he signed me up for this program. I've been in this process for two-and-a-half years. I have enjoyed getting to know people in our church community and a chance to know more about God. The most important thing that I have learned so far is that God does answer prayers and my faith has grown deeper because of that.

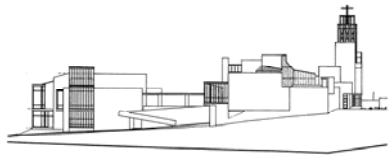

—Eric Waggoner

Adam Carpinelli

At first I volunteered to join the RCIA program. However, after initially enrolling, I did not realize what was involved in making this commitment. I have been in the program for about a year now, and I am glad I have done this. I am looking forward to being baptized and receiving the other sacraments on Easter Vigil.
