What is a Homily?

Homily? What is it? Is it just a fancy word for sermon? Or is there a difference?

Yes. There is a difference. A sermon's purpose is to educate in regard to some facet or tenet of the Faith. A homily is more of a personal reflection of the Scriptures that are proclaimed that day in the Liturgy.

The primary purpose of the homily is to help the congregation in their reflection on the Scriptures: "What am I hearing in these Scriptures that can be related to the events of my life?" "How is this Scripture being fulfilled in my life?" The homilist's reflection assists the individuals of the congregation to reflect upon the movement of God in their lives. A homily attempts to bring together Faith and the ordinary events of our lives. In that sense, it is a very personal, subjective effort.

A sermon is much more objective and attempts to hand on the doctrines and tenets of the Faith. The sermon attempts to teach objectively more than to share personally.

There are times in which people express a desire to hear sermons rather than homilies: "How will Catholics know the Faith if it is not handed on objectively?" "At Mass, we need to be taught! Where else will people learn?"

The need for sermons belies an attitude of "one-stop shopping," that is, it is an attitude of people who want to spend that one hour on Sunday and "get it all."

The Mass on Sunday, ultimately, is not about education. It is about worship. We come together to praise God and to enter into the Mystery of God's Presence. We delve into the Scriptures, the living word of God, to experience God's activity in our lives. Because we experience God's Presence in our lives and because we give God praise and glory, we desire to experience more. So, naturally, we desire to know and learn more about this God and about God's activity in the community, the Church. Now we have the need to be educated.

Did You Know?

With our new Church, we now have much more landscaping to tend and nurture. Our monthly landscaping bill is $3,900. This comes to a yearly cost of $46,800.

Did you know that the median on South Melrose Drive in front of our Church, and the median on Cannon Road also are our responsibility and not that of the City of Oceanside? When you see them being tended to, it is your Parish dollars at work and not your Oceanside tax dollars!

Your donation to our "Did You Know?" Campaign helps us to balance our increasing Operations Budget.

This education takes place not during worship, primarily, but in and through the life of the community during the week. Through adult faith formation, religious education classes, Parish organizations, small church communities, and reading and sharing with other Catholics who are on the same journey of Faith. This takes commitment and involvement in the life of the community during the week. It means making Parish a way of life, not a "one-hour stopover" on Sunday.

St. Thomas More offers many opportunities in which Parishioners can grow in the understanding and knowledge of one's Faith. Take advantage of these opportunities.

Please don't expect to be educated (primarily) at Mass. Come to enter the Mystery of God's Presence and to worship in awe with the other members of the Parish Family. And because we desire to worship God, we will desire to be educated in God's ways. Because we desire to be educated in God's ways, we live our lives in union with a Parish, a community of people on the road of worship and education.

Happy Travelin'!

Considering Becoming Catholic?

Has Pope Francis ignited a spark in you to know more about the Catholic faith and become a member of the Church he shepherds?

If you are already Catholic, perhaps you have a new enthusiasm for your faith that you would like to share with a friend or family member who is searching.

Our lives sometimes go through seasons of change, of closeness to God and distance from God. Yet the Father's love is steadfast, full of mercy, and ever-present to those who seek with a sincere heart, no matter what sins or situations have caused separation.

If you have thought about becoming Catholic and beginning a new "season" in your life, contact Kathleen Bell, 760-809-6526, 80bell180@gmail.com.

Our Mission is to:
worship God,
teach and live the Gospel of Jesus Christ,
and serve God's people in word and deed.

Help Feed the Hungry

*Pope Francis reminds us:
 "You pray for the hungry.
 Then you feed them.
 That's how prayer works."*

We encourage every STM family to donate one nonperishable food item each weekend when they come to Mass.

Together we can help feed the hungry in our local community

Social Ministries & Outreach

STM Mental Health Ministry Network

STM is a member of the San Diego Mental Health Ministry Network (MHMN) and has made a commitment to become a faith community that both understands mental illness and can provide compassionate support. If you or a loved one is experiencing mental health challenges, or if you would like to find out how to become a member, please contact us at 760-758-4100 x104.

St. Bonaventure Indian Mission

On the second weekend in November we will have our annual clothing drive for the Mission serving the Navajo on about 100 square miles of the Big Rez in New Mexico. These beautiful people are among the poorest in the nation where unemployment is rampant, most live below the poverty line, many don't have water or utilities to their "hogans," and where there is no other dedicated clothing drive than that of STM. Please start gathering good serviceable shoes (no heels please) and clothing for all ages...perhaps getting your neighbors and coworkers to do the same. Your generosity is greatly appreciated. Any questions, contact Deacon Tom at thomasgoeltz@aol.com or 760-727-8442. Thank you and God Bless.

Brother Benno's

Summer is rapidly approaching...when many of us "kick back" and relax. Please don't forget the poor serviced by Brother Benno's. They still go hungry if we don't help. Please also remember that we will have a toiletry (and disposable diaper) drive on or about September. Thank you and God Bless.

Pictorial Directory Signups

Photo sessions are NOW underway for our new STM Directory. Schedule your photo appointment for June 12-13 or during the July 6-24 sessions. As adorable as your last family photo was, it may be time to update!

Each family participating will receive a complimentary 8x10 portrait and a FREE Parish Directory. You'll have a chance to purchase more portraits at the time of your sitting.

WE WANT YOU!
in our new
Photo Directory

Here are 3 easy ways to make your appointment:

1. After weekend Masses on the plaza
2. Online at www.stmoside.org (receive a bonus coupon)
3. Call Lifetouch Scheduling at 760-576-8393.

Help is needed on the plaza with table signups before and after Masses on the weekends of June 18-19 through July 9-10. All Mass spots are open, so you can select a Mass time that works for you.

Please also consider being a host to check in folks during our July 6-24 photo sessions. Thank you!

Likewise, they live in hope of God's kindness, mercy, and generosity. In the midst of the inevitable trials and hardships, they trust that God is graciously watching over them and their family. They trust that the Father's love will never abandon them, but that, in union with Jesus, they will always remain in his presence." To read the document go to <http://www.usccb.org/loveandlife/>.

Marriage Moments—"Your sins are forgiven" (Luke 7:48). Any couple who have spent much time together inevitably have things to forgive. How do you usually handle forgiveness in your relationship? Women's Guild News

I hope you all enjoyed the Installation Luncheon and Quilt Raffle! I wish to thank all the members for supporting us this year, for your generosity, and for your willingness to step up and help out. I have never met such a dedicated group of women as you are! During the summer the Board will develop next year's calendar. Your suggestions and recommendations are always welcome. At this time we are looking for at least two Committee Chairs: Fashion Show and Hospitality. Valerie Thompson has overseen the Fashion Show for many years and has done a superb job. She tells me it's time for her to pass this opportunity on to another Guild member. Anna Robinson who was our Hospitality chair is also looking for something a little different, and will be happy to help in other areas within Women's Guild. So, if this is your cup of tea and you are looking for a challenge, we want to hear from you! (As always, help, support, and mentoring is available.)

Watch for information on renewing your membership for 2016-17 (still $10). You can also renew at the Women's Guild table on the plaza on selected weekends. Watch the bulletin for that schedule.

Pilgrimage to South Africa: October 4-17, 2016

Led by Fr. Mike Ratajczak

There will be a meeting on Tuesday, July 5, at 3:00pm on the Parish Center Lower Level for those who will be making this pilgrimage and for those who may be interested in going.

"A pilgrimage is a journey or search of moral or spiritual significance." So why make a pilgrimage to South Africa? Any journey, anywhere, if taken with the notion of better understanding God's World, God's Creation, becomes a pilgrimage because it has spiritual significance.

Journey to South Africa, to the land of Nelson Mandela, a man who spent his entire life to eradicate apartheid, the grave sin of racism...changing the face of a nation and doing so non-violently! Truly a miracle in this day and age...

Journey on a safari to shoot magnificent animals—with cameras and not guns! Truly a miracle in this day and age...

Journey to see one of the most beautiful countries in the world—mountains, seashores, wine country, and more...

This journey is one of spiritual significance. It is a pilgrimage!

I hope you will consider joining me...Brochures are available at the information table on the plaza after Masses, in the Parish Office during the week, or at www.stmoside.org.

STRIVE TO KNOW BY HEART

the psalms of June

by Clara Dina
Hinojosa, from Celebration June 2016, with permission.

A friend of mine was raised playing a game of quoting Christian scripture. When he told this to me, we agreed to test his knowledge. After I posed several tricky questions, it was clear that his memory could still connect scripture with chapter and verse.

Similarly, I'm reminded of a Benedictine nun who could quote the psalms. Rather than challenging each other to a game of "name that psalm," she and her monastic community members learned these sacred texts by faithfully praying the psalms daily within the communal Liturgy of the Hours and in their own practice of lectio divina.

Within the collection of 150 psalms, the church proclaims the full array of human emotion. With that in mind, Benedictine Sr. Irene Nowell named her excellent primer on the Psalter Pleading, Cursing, Praising: Conversing with God through the Psalms. And so in June, we sing four psalms that reveal a wide gamut of feelings and experiences.

On June 5, we hear two passages of mothers losing their children (the first reading and the Gospel). In both instances, God intervenes, and their sons are resuscitated. The appointed psalm—I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me (v.2)—proclaims praise after being in the grip of extreme anguish. This psalm of confidence typifies the pairing of opposite emotions: desperation and exaltation.

Like the psalmist, have you experienced sinking into a pit, perhaps sensing that there was no way out? After you were saved from despair, what song of joy did you offer to God, who changes our mourning into dancing?

Although it is among the seven penitential psalms, Psalm 32 (June 12) is ultimately one of thanksgiving. Following an admission of transgression—Lord, forgive the wrong I have done (v.5)—there is a conversion of heart. This is pivotal to the resulting freedom that the writer later experiences. In parallel with today's 2 Samuel passage (Nathan confronting David for his premeditated sins) and the Gospel of Luke (the sinful woman who pours oil on and bathes Jesus' feet with her tears of repentance), we hear the psalmist acknowledge sins as well as exclaim joy when suffering is lifted.

As you explore your own heaviness of regret and freedom from guilt, what is aroused within you? As you approach those places needing God's mercy and compassion, how do you voice your admission of transgression?

Psalm 63 expresses lament, thanksgiving, and trust (June 19). As this scriptural song begins, the psalmist cries out, "My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God... like the earth, parched, lifeless and without water" (vss. 2,4). While describing feelings of longing, the writer draws upon themes within nature, as is common within Hebrew scripture. Similar to how the riches of a banquet satisfy the hungry, so too does God's blessing fill those seeking union with the Divine. "Under the shadow of your wings" is where the writer finds security in God's protection. As you listen to your inner voice, for what are you most hungry? When you have felt alone, how have you trusted in God's enduring presence, whose right hand upholds you?

In its first lines, Psalm 16 (June 26) reveals the writer's trust in God. In verse 6, we hear the appointed refrain—You are my inheritance, O Lord. Delighted in the portion awarded to the psalmist and his people, the poem speaks of the unwavering support offered by the one, true God. Confident in the path

"So I tell you, her many sins have been forgiven because she has shown great love. But the one to whom little is forgiven, loves little."

of the life set forth, the psalmist celebrates the fullness of joy that comes when relying on God's presence alone.

In a world where property and money typically comprise one's inheritance, what is the spiritual legacy that you have received from God? As a Christian disciple, how do you, or will you, embody this grace?

I often recall the manner in which my friend and the nun proclaimed their respective texts. Under a closer review, there appears to be a distinct difference. The rote recitation of scripture by the former seemed to be an activity of the head. On the other hand, the proclaiming of the psalms appeared to surface from a place deep within.

As you approach the psalms, avoid simply reading them from the page or learning them by rote. Instead strive to know them by heart. Savor these words, and let them rise from the depths of your own emotion. Whether you sing them within the Sunday assembly or in the quiet setting of an intimate prayer space, imagine your proclamation aligned with the entire church's expression of faith. Allow your life circumstances of praising, pleading, thirsting, and celebrating to intertwine with the experiences of the psalmists and the entire People of God.

A WAY TO GIVE ~ A WAY TO RECEIVE

WILLS, LIVING TRUSTS, STOCKS, LIFE INSURANCE, MUTUAL FUNDS, REAL ESTATE, ENDOWMENTS DESIGNATED BANK ACCOUNTS

Planned Giving is a generic term that covers the many ways an individual can give to a charity while, in many cases avoiding taxes. A few examples of Planned Giving are: Wills, Living Trusts, Designated Beneficiary Accounts, Stocks, Life Insurance, Mutual Funds, Endowments, and Real Estate.

This program is one way of helping the Parish raise the resources necessary to continue our campus build out and also help plan for our future needs (i.e., Tower of Faith participants). Gifts of this nature are beneficial and much appreciated by St. Thomas More.

Hospitality at Mass: A Key to Good Stewardship

Welcoming newcomers to our Parish is not just the job of the pastoral staff, ministers of hospitality or greeters. It is everyone's responsibility. Here are a few things we can all do to provide hospitality in our Parish.

- † Cultivate the virtue of hospitality at Mass. It is important to recognize and welcome people we do not yet know. It is easy for us to only talk to people we know, just heedless of the need for hospitality to all. Make this a new habit when you go to Mass!
- † Come early, leave late. Instead of rushing to Mass to be there on time, and then rushing out at its conclusion, make time to come a little early and linger just a bit later. Make room in your busy life to greet and spend time with others at Mass.
- † Go in peace to greet someone! Seek out someone you've not met before. Shake their hand, introduce yourself, and take a few moments to welcome them to our Parish home, God's house.
- † Welcome everyone. Not only do visitors need a warm welcome, regular Mass attendees also need a friendly greeting. Use your good handshake and be enthusiastic about our Parish. You are greeting all in the name of Christ.
- † Help newcomers connect. While you are getting to know visitors, introduce them to other parishioners as the opportunity presents itself. Feel free to invite visitors to sit next to you.
- † Say goodbye with genuine warmth. After Mass, bid farewell to visitors, inviting them to return. Introduce them to Fr. Mike and Fr. Karl as the opportunity arises.
- † Give visitors information about STM Parish. Ensure that a visitor has a bulletin and other information about the Parish before they leave. If there is a social gathering after Mass, invite them.
- † Be part of a greeting ministry team. Parishes are always in need of Hospitality Ministers and Greeters to serve regularly. Help out! Now is a good time to start!
- † Greet those who already minister in the area of hospitality. It isn't necessary to neglect the people who are already ministers of hospitality in order to make visitors feel at home. A simple wave and a smile go a long way.

—Partially excerpted, ICSC June 2016 e-bulletin, (with permission)

Thank you to all of our Hospitality Ministers, Greeters, and Parishioners for welcoming all of our visitors!
