The Challenge of Faithful Citizenship

As we continue to prepare for the Election in November, we are mindful that October is "Respect Life" month. As Catholics, we are a people who believe in life, and the promotion and protection of life from womb to tomb. We call this stance, this perspective, being "pro-life."

During the many conversations taking place regarding the Presidential Election, I have been amazed by the number of people who seem to think that being "pro-life" only means being "anti-abortion."

In deeper discussion with these people, they said to me that they understood that to be "pro-life" was to be "anti-abortion" and they did not realize that the Catholic Church saw being "pro-life" in a much broader perspective.

Reflecting upon their comments, it seems that because the Church has so focused on the abortion issue, and rightly so, we have lost our focus on the other life issues.

The challenge is to still be as strongly focused on being "anti-abortion" while promoting and keeping focused on all the other life issues as well.

Neither major political party, Democrat or Republican, is "pro-life" as the Catholic Church is "pro-life." Yet, as Catholics, we must exercise our responsibilities and duties as citizens of this country. We must take the values of the Catholic Church, and through our informed consciences, support the candidates and positions that best reflect a consistent "pro-life" ethic. This becomes an issue of conscience and not political party affiliation.

Written in 2004, yet still very timely, I share with you these "10 Questions for the Campaign" that comes to us from the Administrative Committee of the United States

Did You Know?

There are fees for the use of credit cards and other electronic financial transactions by which donations are made to the Parish through the Automated Clearing House Network (ACH). The use of ACH is very helpful to us because it assures us of regular payments, which in turn can better help us to budget our "Operation Costs."

The service company we use to process electronic transactions is Vanco Payment Solutions, and our fees average $1,221.54 per month, which comes to a yearly total of $14,658.48.

This is the cost of doing business! Your donation to the "Did You Know?" Campaign helps us balance our bottom line. Your support is always appreciated!

Conference of Catholic Bishops in their statement, "The Challenge of Faithful Citizenship—A Catholic Call to Political Responsibility":

1. After September 11, 2001, how can we build not only a safer world, but a better world—more just, more secure, more peaceful, more respectful of human life and dignity?
2. How will we protect the weakest in our midst—innocent unborn children? How can our nation not turn to violence to solve some of its most difficult problems—abortion to deal with difficult pregnancies, the death penalty to combat crime, euthanasia and assisted suicide to deal with the burdens of age and illness, and war to address international disputes?
3. How will we address the tragic fact that more than 30,000 children die every day as a result of hunger, international debt, and lack of development around the world?
4. How can our nation help parents raise their children with respect for life, sound moral values, a sense of hope, and an ethic of stewardship and responsibility? How can our society defend the central institution of marriage and better support families in their moral responsibilities?
5. How will we address the growing number of people without affordable and accessible health care? How can health care better protect human life and respect human dignity?
6. How will our society combat continuing prejudice, overcome hostility toward immigrants and refugees, and heal the wounds of racism, religious bigotry, and discrimination?
7. How will our nation pursue the values of justice and peace in a world where injustice is common, desperate poverty widespread, and peace is too often overwhelmed by violence?
8. What are the responsibilities and limitations of families, community organizations, markets, and government? How can these elements of society work together to overcome poverty, pursue the common good, and care for creation?
9. When should our nation use, or avoid the use of military force—for what purpose, under what authority, and at what human cost?
10. How can we join with other nations to lead the world to greater respect for human life and dignity, religious freedom and democracy, economic justice and care for God's creation?

I encourage you to take time with these questions, to read them, reflect upon them, pray over them. May these help all of us to expand our vision on what it means to be "pro-life" in the Catholic spirit.

And take time to prepare so that when you vote on November 8, you will do so with an informed conscience.

F. Mike

La Posada Men's Shelter Fundraiser Luncheon

Support La Posada de Guadalupe! Come to the Annual Luncheon Friday, October 28, at the Holiday Inn, Palomar Airport Road, 11:30am-1:00pm. Tickets: $75 per person; $650 per table.

La Posada de Guadalupe, located off in Carlsbad, welcomes homeless men and farm workers from all of North County. The shelter has a diverse population, including veterans. Besides room and board, the men receive a variety of case management services that support them to become independent, healthy, and contributing members of their communities. Farm workers have jobs but need a place to sleep and eat; they pay for part of their room and board.

We need your help! The Friends of La Posada are hosting this annual fundraiser. Please join us! Cathy Blecki and other members of the Social Justice Committee will be on the plaza after Masses on October 8-9 to sell tickets, hand out free newsletters, and accept any donations you would like to make. You may also visit our website to sign up and pay for the luncheon at www.friendsoflaposada.org or call Cathy Blecki at 760-704-6407.

Special All Souls Day Mass

There will be a special All Souls Day Mass at 7:00pm on Wednesday, November 2. Let us gather as a Parish community to remember our loved ones who have gone before us and now rest in the peace and joy of God's presence.

St. Bonaventure Indian Mission

"Lord, when did we see you naked and fail to clothe you?" Our annual clothing drive to help the Navajo served by St. Bonaventure Mission is coming up on November 5-6. These good people are among the poorest of the poor in our great country and in great need of clothing of all sorts, of all ages, and all sizes. They are also in need of shoes (no heels please). STM conducts the only dedicated drive to help the mission, and they have come to rely on our continued help. Please collect your serviceable used clothing and footwear and bring them to the STM parking lot on the above date. Any questions, contact Deacon Tom thomasgoeltz@aol.com or 760-727-8442. Thank you and God Bless!

Brother Benno's

Although our toiletry and diaper drive is successfully over, the needs of the people served by Brother Benno's continues. Please remember them in your prayers and in your generosity. Visit www.brotherbenno.org.

Veterans Brunch

Sunday, November 13, 11:30am-1:00pm

For Active/Reserve/Retired, and spouses of veterans (including the faithful departed). Please join us for remembrance, comradeship, and information about veterans benefits resources. To RSVP or for more information, visit www.eventbrite.com and Browse Events, then search for St. Thomas (no space).

In Gratitude!

We will be forever grateful to the wonderful STM community for your prayers and support during Katie's illness. Her latest test results show good news! —Tom & Katie Browne Civil to Church Marriage—Are you civilly married, but haven't yet been married in the church? Contact Fr. Mike at michaelr@stmoside.org to begin your preparation!

Natural Family Planning—Struggling to conceive but nothing is happening? Or doctors tell you IVF is your only hope? Want to space children naturally and effectively? Come listen to a free Introductory Presentation of the Creighton Model FertilityCare system. Every third Thursday of the month. Next presentation: Thursday, October 20, 7:00pm, St. Thomas More, Parish Center Upper Level. Please RSVP with Beth at 619-630-8086 or beth@veritasfertilitycare.com.

Relationship Skills Workshops—Deacon John and Debbie Fredette will present Relationship Skills Workshops every Tuesday evening, 7:00-8:30pm, at St. Thomas More in the Parish Center Lower Level through January 17. Come and explore how to improve your relationship! You can attend one workshop, several, or all of them. The topic for October 18 is Control Issues. There is no pre-registration or fee. For more information call Deacon John at 760-758-4100 x104

Bishops' Letter on Marriage—Contraception: "By using contraception, married couples may think that they are avoiding problems or easing tensions, that they are exerting control over their lives. At the same time, they may think that they are doing nothing harmful to their marriages. In reality, the deliberate separation of the procreative and unitive meanings of marriage has the potential to damage or destroy the marriage. Also, it results in many other negative consequences, both personal and social." To read the document go to <http://www.usccb.org/loveandlife/>.

Marriage Moments—It's easy to say "Pray always" (Luke 18:1), but is it really practical? If we broaden our concept of prayer it is. Service to the family can be a form of prayer. Think doing dishes, fixing stuff around the house, taking care of sometimes crabby kids, providing an income for necessities... Bring prayerful mindfulness to one such act today. By Susan Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net.

Parenting Pointers—"Moses' hands grew tired" (Ex 17:12). We all grow tired at some point in life. (Even kids eventually get tired of crying.) When this happens we need the support of those close to us. Ask your family to lighten another member's load in some way this week. By Susan Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net.

For more information, visit www.sdccatholic.org Ministries/ Marriage and Family Life or call Jen Frost at 858-692-7438.

Spirited Seniors Outing—SAVE THE DATE!

Women's Guild News

Our October luncheon meeting was a resounding success thanks to the beautiful Hawaiian and Japanese dances performed by Valerie Thompson's troupe and Takamei Stephens. The program was both mesmerizing and educational, as Valerie demonstrated the meaning of the hand movements in the Hawaiian portion. The graceful way they told their stories in dance was so lovely, we hope to have them back in the future! Our November luncheon meeting will include a panel discussion including Sally Fay, Valerie Thompson, and Cyndy Hamasaki, who will share their breast cancer experiences, with a Q&A session to follow. More information on this will be available in upcoming bulletins.

The new Women's Guild membership directory is now available. They were distributed to each member present at our October meeting and will be available at future meetings for those who have not yet received one.

Women's Guild semi-annual Bake Sale takes place after each of the Masses October 22-23. Be sure to stop by the tables on the plaza and purchase a goody to share with family and friends. Your donation of a home baked item or two would be most welcome as well. Please label the item if it contains nuts, and avoid items requiring refrigeration. See the flyer for details.

Game Day is Saturday, November 19, 10:00am-3:00pm. This is a day of fun that includes lively games of your liking, snacks, lunch, door prizes and opportunity baskets. Everyone is welcome—family and friends alike. Tickets are $20 and will be sold on the plaza for several weekends prior to the event. Watch for the flyer in an upcoming bulletin!

Have a blessed week. —Kathy Gerhard, president

Thanksgiving Dinner Update

After preparing and serving Thanksgiving Dinners at St. Thomas More for the past eleven years, we regret that we will no longer be able to perform this service. We have immensely enjoyed doing this, sharing the holiday with so many wonderful people, and we want to thank the Parish staff for their support over the years. If anyone is interested in taking over this tradition, please contact the Parish Office. We have purchased many items over the years that we would be happy to pass along, and we certainly will be available to "mentor" anyone who would like to continue the dinners.

—Bruce and Wilma Rolland and Tom and Karen Oshinski

Do YOU Recycle?

The youth of the Parish will soon be starting a recycling ministry to raise money for their activities. The California CRV program provides a wonderful opportunity for fundraising, as more than 60% of the money raised through the CRV program never gets redeemed. Watch for the blue recycling bins on the plaza after Masses in the coming weeks and make sure to deposit your eligible drink containers in them. There will also be an information table on the plaza explaining how the program works.

HISTORY OF HYMNS

The Church of Christ in Every Age

The church of Christ, in every age,
beset by change but Spirit-led,
must claim and test its heritage and keep on rising from the dead.

Across the world, across the street,
the victims of injustice cry
for shelter and for bread to eat, and never live until they die.

Then let the servant church arise,
a caring church that longs to be a partner in Christ's sacrifice, and clothed in Christ's humanity.

For he alone, whose blood was shed,
can cure the fever in our blood,
and teach us how to share our bread and feed the starving multitude.

We have no mission but to serve in full obedience to our Lord,
to care for all, without reserve,
and spread his liberating Word.

This Sunday we hear Jesus tell the Parable of the Persistent Widow—or the Parable of the Unjust Judge, depending on how you look at it.

In choosing our music for the weekend, I chose Fred Pratt Green's hymn "The Church of Christ, in Every Age" as our recessional song since the text exactly mirrors our liturgy's Gospel theme.

We have sung this hymn (by which I mean the text) before, but as it is unfamiliar to some of us, I thought I would share some information about the hymn text and its author.

(The tune is also familiar, as we sing it to three different texts: "For All the Saints Who've Shown Your Love" and "When Love Is Found" in addition to this text.)

They hymn's author, Fred Pratt Green (1903-2000) was born in Roby, England, just outside of Liverpool. The youngest of three children, he was born into a Christian home he described as "a place where religion was scrupulously observed but never made burdensome." Following his education, Green was ordained in the British Methodist Church in 1924 and continued his ministry in various parishes throughout England well into the 1940s.

As a minister, he rarely had time for outside interests, but when he met devout poet Fallon Webb, he was instantly fascinated. The two exchanged poetry for nearly 20 years, setting the stage for Green to focus on hymn writing after his retirement from active ministry.

Green's hymns reflect his concern with social issues. Many were written to serve the liturgical needs of the modern church, such as specific seasons of the Christian year. Others speak to topics for which there were few traditional hymns available.

Green composed this hymn in 1969, a time of social unrest throughout much of the world, including the U.S., Europe, and South Africa. Published at first under the heading of "The Caring Church," it appeared in Green's 26 Hymns (1971) and then in New Church Praise (1975), where it came into prominence.

The first U.S. hymnal to publish the hymn was the Lutheran Book of Worship (1978). Since then, "The Church of Christ in Every Age" has been included in many hymnals, including those by all three major Catholic music publishers (GIA, OCP, and WLP).

There was a judge...and a widow.

Luke 18:2-3

The Rev. Carlton Young, editor of the United Methodist Hymnal, notes, "This hymn calls the church to be the agent of change and reconciliation in the struggle against injustice and hunger."

Particular phrases in the hymn reveal the provocative and powerful images for which Green is known. For example, stanza one concludes that the church "must claim and test its heritage / and keep on rising from the dead." Stanza two focuses on the poor and hungry, and stanza three challenges the "servant church" to become "a partner in Christ's sacrifice" and to be "clothed in Christ's humanity." Stanza four focuses on the image of Christ "whose blood was shed," and who as a result "can cure the fever in our blood" so that we will "share our bread and feed the starving multitude." The final stanza clarifies the purpose of the church: "We have no mission but to serve in full obedience to our Lord." The mission of the church is to "spread [Christ's] liberating word."

Amen!

St. Francis: A Stewardship Saint for Our Time

Scientists say that most of us will never experience the full wonder of the star-filled nighttime sky because of the "light pollution" which keeps our modern world too bright to see true night. No doubt, this would have saddened St. Francis of Assisi, whose feast we celebrate October 4.

The saint who embraced the glory of creation, Francis is the patron saint of ecology and a model steward for our present age. Always one of our most popular saints, you need only visit a garden shop to find that, even in the midst of secular commerce, you can find a lawn statue of the 12th century native of an Umbrian hill town. Yet like many famous folk, Francis has become somewhat stereotyped, those statues always adorned sweetly with little birds.

In reality, Francis was a bold and inspired man, a good steward of creation, who embraced it as bountifully good, emphasizing the original outpouring of God's love into the world (at a time when the emphasis was often placed heavily on the stain of original sin.) Francis was a good steward of his neighbor. He famously embraced a leper he met on the roadway, even though he deeply feared the disease. When the man appeared to vanish, Francis felt he had encountered Christ himself which strengthened his belief that God is found in all of creation.

Francis heard the words "Rebuild my church" while visiting the worn-down chapel at San Damiano. Only later did he and others regard those words as a challenge not to repair a structure but to reinvigorate Christian spirituality. Today, in a time of environmental crisis, Pope Francis is the first pontiff to take the saint of Assisi's name as his own. The Holy Father's encyclical, "Laudato Sí, On Care for Our Common Home," speaks to the need to be good stewards of creation, to protect and cherish God's great gift. St. Francis left us, along with a deep love for creation, with a spirituality that embraces simplicity and love for the poor.

October offers Christian stewards an opportunity to pray outdoors in the beauty of autumn, the changing leaves, the early dusk. Be a good steward of your prayer life: Take a prayer walk, as St. Francis would. Ask the saint to help you recommit to a simpler lifestyle, recycling, reusing, honoring resources, to seeing the earth and its poor as holy. Perhaps we might even venture out to the garden late at night, to see as many stars as we can.

Be Involved. Save Lives.

OUR MISSION IS TO SAVE LIVES by delivering cures to people diagnosed with life-threatening blood cancers through marrow transplants. But we can't do this important work alone. We work with amazing partners and volunteers like you to help the more than 14,000 patients in need of transplant. JOIN US!

Jerome Elbacha is 11 years old, was diagnosed with leukemia AML. On October 18, 2014, he received 5 rounds of chemotherapy that put him in remission for 18 months. Unfortunately the leukemia is back, and now he is in admission for more chemotherapy and in need of a bone marrow transplant; his older brother is not a match.

This is where you can help. A bone marrow donor will be unrelated and will be matched from the National Donor Registry: Be The Match. Please consider joining the registry. You could be the miracle for Jerome or one of the other 14,000 people who are searching for a donor. Ethnically diverse donors are especially needed.

Thank you!
